States That Parisian Sage is Best Hair Tonic

"I had a bad case of dandruft. My scalp was full of dandruff and it came out thick and scaly. My hair came out badly; often I nearly cried on account of losing my pretty head of hair.

Theard of PARISIAN SAGE, and only had to use two bottles before the hair stopped coming out, the scalp became clean and all the dandruff disappeared. The hair became silky, and one big reason that I liked PARISIAN SAGE was that it kept the hair smooth, silky and clean, with no traces of stickiness.

I believe this tonic to be the best on the market, as there has been no return

I believe this tonic to be the best on the market, as there has been no return of dandruff or hair falling out whatever. I am glad to publicly endorse the use of PARISIAN SAGE. I have often endorsed its use and am glad to do it." 33 E. Bond St., Corry, Pa. PARISIAN SAGE, the delightful hair dressing and beautifier sold by Tragle Co. and druggists everywhere. Virginia gets two directors on the National Rivers and Harbors board—John C. Freeman, of Richmond, and Goodrich Hatton, of Portsmouth. This is something new, as heretofore Virginia has had no directors on this board. H. S. Decker, of Norfolk, was placed on the committee of resolutions. George Bryan, of Richmond, on nominations, and R. A. Doble, of Norfolk, made vice-presidents of the Virginia association.

National description was received from the officers and men of the Fire Department, and ment, asking a 16 per cent, increase in ment, asking a 16 per cent, increase in pay, and referred to the Ordinance, Charter and Reform Committee, as was a petition from the principals, light School, primary and all other grades of teachers save the elementary grade, for an increase similar to that recently recommended for the elementary teachers.

Drunken Man.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Peach Bottom, Va., December 4.—Late Saturday afternoon Mitchell B. Wilson, who resided near Hooker, Alleghany county, N. C., was shot and instantly killed by a young man hamed Moxley. Wilson was attending a meeting of the stockholders of a telephone company at Hooker, and Moxley, who had recently returned from the West, was present, and under the influence of liquor. Wilson left Hooker to take loxiey home. They were walking along the road, and had proceeded not more than a half-mile, when nearing the residence of John Green, Moxley drew a revolver and fired in the direction of Green, who was standing in the road in front of his house. The bullet entered the ground close by his side. After firing this shot Moxley whirl'd the pistol over his shoulder and fired again, the ball passing through Wilson's heart and killing him instantly.

In a few minutes a number of people were on the scene. Moxley was found lying in the road close by the side of

Two Writs of Error Granted.

Two Writs of Error Granted.

A writ of error was granted yesterday in the case of the Western Union Telegraph Company against James L. Davis in the Virginia Supreme Court. The case comes from the Corporation Court of the city of Bristol, where the telegraph company was fined $100 for failure to deliver a message to Mr. Davis.

The Supreme Court also allowed a message of the court of the city of the to Mr. Davis.

The Supreme Court also sllowed a writ of error in the case of W. B. Duling and others against Madelino Duling, from the Circuit Court of King and Queen county. The case grows out of the construction placed on the will of James L. Duling, the amount involved being small.

In the spring of 1904 I was confined to my bed with kidney trouble, and thought that I would never recover. I took a lot of medicine, but did not realize any benefit from anything. I finally saw Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root advertisement and sent for a sample bottle, and thought the sample bottle helped me, so I bought more of the medicine from my druggist, and after using a few bottles discharged a very large stone from my bladder.

After passing this stone my health was very much improved, and I have been able to continue my business without any serious sickness.
